

Sasha Hill and me will be in Ghana this summer

TaQuaesa's mission trip to Ghana!

Dear Family and Friends,

I am writing to tell you that God has led me to be a part of a mission trip to Ghana, Africa. I would like to inform you about the work that I will be going while on this trip, the purpose of this trip, and the partnership that is available to you.

I have been involved with an on campus ministry for three years at Youngstown State University. Intervarsity Christian Fellowship (IVCF) has been going overseas for several years to do evangelism outreach in communities throughout Ghana. On May 24- July 21, 2010, myself and another student from Youngstown State University will be a part of a team of IVCF students traveling to Ghana to partner with Ghanaian students to become an incarnational witnessing community. Our aim is to serve and encourage Christian brothers and sisters in Ghana and to partner with them in proclaiming the gospel. We will also work with World Vision's in their year-round community transformation program.

We will take part in personal spiritual growth and cross-cultural interaction with fellow Christians. The trip will help me grow in my relationship with God, my boldness as a witness, and my love for people of various cultures. On past trips many have committed their lives to Christ and were ministered to, and hundreds heard a clear presentation of the Gospel.

Your partnership is a vital part of God's mission in Africa in two ways. First, I am a firm believer that nothing can be done without the power of God, for that we need much prayer. I would love you to be a prayer partner who will lift us up in prayer as we carry out God's mission. Secondly, I am asking you to consider financial partnership with the work that God is calling me to do in Ghana. Just as long-term missionaries rely on the generous gifts of God's people to support them, I am relying on people like you to help the Word of God to be spread to Ghanaians. The total cost of the mission trip is $3,750 and I have to raise at least $2,000 by April 20, 2010. You will be participating in leading people to Christ through your gift. Please prayerfully consider giving a gift. All checks should be sent to:

Sincerely,

TaQuaesa Toney
